

I support this petition and ask that the FCC maintain the suggestion Morse requirements for the General and Extra licenses. I think the requirement for Extra should be at least 13 wpm. I also think that Advanced class should NOT be automatically be given Extra class privileges. They should be required to take and pass the written test like everybody else, I did. I also do not think that General should be given access to the Advanced part of the bands, this too should be earned.